Summary: A complaint was received from the Evergreen Freedom Foundation and public school employees alleging that the Washington Education Association (WEA) and Washington School Districts are in violation of RCW 42.17.680 and 42.17.760. The complaint alleges that Washington School Districts are in violation of RCW 42.17.680 by withholding dues and fees from employees’ wages that are used by the WEA and the National Education Association (NEA) for contributions to political campaigns. Date Started: February 6, 2002

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.040, .080, .090, .680 and .760

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: On January 31, 2002, the Evergreen Freedom Foundation, Lowell Johnson, Carrie Riplinger, Susan Kobes and David Williams, through attorney Jeanne Brown filed a citizen's action letter under RCW 42.17.400(4) with the Office of the Attorney General and the State of Washington's County

Prosecutors’ Offices. The complaint alleged violations by the NEA’s Ballot Measure/Legislative Crisis and Media Campaign Fund of 1) RCW 42.17.040 et. seq (failure to register as a political committee); 2) violations of RCW 42.17.680(3) (diverting a portion of an employee's wages or salaries for contributions to political committees without the written request of the employee); and 3) violations of RCW 42.17.760 (using agency shop fees paid by non members to influence an election without written authorization by the Individual). On February 6, 2002, the Office of the Attorney General officially notified the PDC that they were referring the matter to the PDC for investigation. PDC Staff completed a Preliminary Report of Investigation and prepared a memorandum to Commission members concerning Staff’s findings and recommendation.

Disposition: On April 9, 2002, the matter was on the Commission’s agenda as a report to the Commission. In light of the complaint the Evergreen Freedom Foundation filed against the NEA in Thurston County Superior Court on April 8, 2002 under provisions of RCW 42.17.400(4), the Commission accepted Staff’s recommendation that it take no action in this case. On August 23, 2002, Thurston County Superior Court Judge Paula Casey dismissed the lawsuit filed by EFF against NEA. Judge Casey’s dismissal was based on a decision by the WA State Court of Appeals in State ex rel. Evergreen Freedom Foundation v Washington Education Association, No. 25272-4-II, where the court stated that “Before the 10-day period¹ had passed after EFF’s second letter to the AG, the AG forwarded the allegations to the PDC for investigation...Because the AG acted before the end of the 10-day period, EFF could not bring a citizen’s action lawsuit under RCW 42.17.400...” By a unanimous vote, the Commission dismissed the allegations that NEA violated RCW 42.17.040 and 42.17.680.

On October 2, 2002, at a special Commission meeting, by a unanimous vote, the Commission dismissed the allegations that NEA violated RCW 42.17.040 and 42.17.680. By a unanimous vote, the Commission found multiple apparent violations of RCW 42.17.760 by the NEA when it used agency shop fees to make contributions or expenditures to influence an election or to operate a political committee without authorization from the employees. The Commission found that given the insufficiency of its penalty authority, in lieu of holding an enforcement

Asher, Dave (Re-opened) -- Case #03-160A; Investigator: Suemary Trobaugh

Date Received: August 21, 2003

Date Started: August 21, 2003

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.640

Status: Under Investigation (Case dismissed July 15, 2005 and re-opened August 21, 2003 after receiving additional evidence.)

Summary: A complaint was received from Lois Gustafson alleging that Dave Asher, a candidate for State Representative in 2002 from the 45th Legislative District, exceeded the 2002 contribution limits by accepting an in-kind contribution from Argosy Cruise Lines for a fund raising event that exceeded the $625 contribution limit for an election.

Note: If the Disposition shows “Pending,” the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

Disposition: Pending. This complaint was originally received March 20, 2003 and was dismissed with the concurrence of the Chair on July 15, 2003. It was initially found that on September 9, 2002, the David Asher campaign had a two-hour fundraiser on the MV Kirkland, an Argosy Cruise Lines vessel, with eighty people in attendance. The MV Kirkland remained docked for the duration of the fundraiser at Kirkland Marina, and the campaign did not use any catering or host beverage services from Argosy Cruise Lines. The campaign provided the food for the event, and those in attendance paid Argosy for their drinks at the cash bar. The President of Argosy Cruise Lines confirmed the fair market value of the use of the docked boat of $625, and provided written confirmation of the value to the Asher campaign on April 7, 2003. In addition, he stated to PDC staff that the $625 value of the moored boat was based on the past lack of use of the vessel on a Monday night, the fact that the boat remained moored during the entire two-hour event, and no catering services were used. Based on new information provided to the Commission, the investigation has been re-opened.

NOTE: On July 29, 2002, King County Superior Court Judge Richard McDermott issued a Permanent Injunction in Washington Education Association v. PDC et al. against the PDC's distribution of, investigations concerning, and enforcement of certain provisions of the PDC's "Guidelines for School Districts in Election Campaigns" that were finalized by the PDC in August 2001. The Guidelines explain the PDC's interpretation of RCW 42.17.130. The Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law that were also entered by the superior court, along with the Permanent Injunction, raise questions about the constitutionality of RCW 42.17.130. The PDC filed an appeal from the Permanent Injunction with the Washington State Supreme Court, and also filed an Emergency Motion to Stay the Injunction Pending Appeal. On September 4, 2002, that motion was denied. As a result, the Permanent Injunction, and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, remain in effect.

Note: If the Disposition shows "Pending," the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

Therefore, until the State Supreme Court has heard this case after full briefing and argument by the parties and has issued its written decision, we are suspending investigation of complaints alleging violations of RCW 42.17.130, with two exceptions. The PDC will investigate, but not bring to a hearing until the State Supreme Court issues its decision, those complaints involving the use of e-mail or internal mail systems for communicating endorsements, and the use of classrooms for distributing materials expressly advocating support for or opposition to one or more candidates. See our website for copies of the Permanent Injunction and Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, as well as RCW 42.17.130, WAC 390-05-271 and WAC 390-05-273.
